

DEFINITION AND CATEGORIES OF SPORTS FACILITIES

CATEGORY A

Stadium

National facility should be able to host National level competitions and tournaments, and depending on International Governing Body specifications, also host international events.

CATEGORY B

Community Stadiums

Hosts community sport events including school tournaments and competitive sport

CATEGORY C

Sport Complex

Multi sport facility that can host multiple activities. It is usually fenced and may consist of several courts, playing field/s, club house and ablution blocks.

CATEGORY D

Indoor sport facility/Arena

The indoor facilities must also be multi-use, and provide reasonable seating, and a play surface that is appropriate for multiple activities and marked accordingly. The playing area should have a minimum clearance of 2 metres on all sides. The facility must have male and female ablutions with at least one

CATEGORY E1

Single use outdoor facilities

Facilities meant for a specific code such as golf, cricket and so on. Such facilities are fenced, have a clubhouse and a playing field.

CATEGORY E2

Stand alone

Netball courts, tennis courts and basketball courts which may be fenced with/without ablution facilities

CATEGORY F

Open fields

Grassed / Non-grassed fields. Most instances managed by Clubs / LFAs